My name is Delaney Farren. I am 4 years old and I was diagnosed with Leukemia in June 2008. My mommy, daddy, and 2 big sisters all love me very much, and I have the best nurses and doctors at CHOP. My daddy has been home with me to take me to my doctor's appointments. I get to go to preschool part-time on good days. I've had some bad side effects from the chemo medicines. My family does their best to help me lead a normal life. We have started a foundation in my name to help assist families dealing with childhood cancer, and to raise money for childhood cancer research.
